ARC Awarded Third Party Logistics for European Wide Movement (3PL) Contract

Parsippany, New Jersey – American Roll-On Roll-Off Carrier Group Inc. (ARC) announced today that it has been selected as a contract awardee for the new multiyear Third Party Logistics for European Wide Movement (3PL) Contract from the 409th Contracting Support Brigade/Theater Contracting Center based in Kaiserslautern, Germany.

The Third Party Logistics for European Wide Movement (3PL) Contract (W564KV-19-R-0015) provides the EUCOM theater with logistics services, baggage and passenger transportation, and Material Handling Equipment (MHE) in support to the U.S. Department of Defense.

This multiple awardee contract is scheduled to begin 10 May 2020. It has a three-year performance period with a maximum value of $49 million.

"ARC has three decades of experience supporting USAREUR and the 21st TSC in some of the most extensive unit deployments throughout the EUCOM AOR," said Brian Jones, ARC General Manager-Europe. "We take pride in our responsiveness and on-time delivery and look forward to supporting this important mission."
